DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see amendment, filed 1-12-2007, with respect to the claims have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of these claims has been withdrawn.

1. All claims are "allowable" except for the double patenting rejection which still stands and requires a Terminal Disclaimer to overcome this rejection.
2. The amendment overcomes the USC 112 rejections as well.

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

1. The examiner believes the novel concept found in the claims relies on:

"...providing a first ratio of a power of the non-power control bits to a power of the power control bits; comparing the ratio to a threshold to determine the state of the signal; and generating a power control command bit based on the comparison".

Therefore, one skilled must first consider measuring the power of the Power Control Bits as well as the power of non-power control bits and then compare these two measurements in order to determine a power control command (eg. increase or decrease). The prior art of record neither discloses a concept or motivation whereas the design seeks to measure the power control and non-power control bits, compare them and then provide power control commands. Furthermore, the examiner notes that one cannot simply apply the concept of comparing "any" two bits (eg. PCB's and non-PBC's) without first specifying that there is some type of reason (eg. correlation) as to why this comparison would assist with power control (as put forth in the applicant's disclosure).

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-4, 7-8, 11-22 and 25 rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,725,054. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both deal with cellular mobile systems whereby ratios of bit energies are compared and influence power control decisions/operations.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
